OVERVIEW: Why the Google Apps for Education services for enrolled students are slightly different from similar services that are publicly provided by Google

426 Christopher Nixon September 8, 2016 Google Apps

Why the Google Apps for Education services for enrolled students are slightly different from similar services that are publicly provided by Google

Google Apps for Education accounts have been customized for optimal educational collaboration. As a member, you will not see advertisements and Clemson University branding will appear at the top of most Google Apps for Education pages. In addition, Clemson University has taken steps to ensure that your student data is protected above and beyond a publicly available account.

Online URL: https://hdkb.clemson.edu/phpkb/article.php?id=426